MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND CHEMICALS

New Delhi, the 23rd April 1966

S.O. 1360.—Whereas it appears to the Central Government that it is necessary in the public interest that for the transport of petroleum between Barauni Refinery in Bihar State to Kanpur in Uttar Pradesh State, a pipeline should be laid by the Indian Oil Corporation Limited and that for the purpose of laying such pipeline, it is necessary to acquire the right of user in land described in the Schedule annexed hereto.

2. Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Petroleum Pipelines (Acquisition of Right of User in Land) Act, 1962 (50 of 1962), the Central Government hereby declares its intention to acquire the right of user therein.

3. Any person interested in the said land may, within 21 days from the date of this notification, object to the laying of the pipelines under the land to the Competent Authority, Special Land Acquisition Officer, C/o. Indian Oil Corporation Limited, P.O. Hathidah, District Patna. Every person making such an objection shall also state specifically whether he wishes to be heard in person or by a legal practitioner.

"V.—REDELIVERY TO THE SENDER OR ALTERATION OR CORRECTION OF ADDRESS OF POSTAL ARTICLES IN THE COURSE OF TRANSMISSION BY POST.

201. (1) Subject to the provisions of this rule, the sender of a postal article (hereinafter in this rule referred to as the sender) posted in India may have it withdrawn from the post, or have its address altered, so long as the article—

- (a) has not been delivered to the addressee;
- (b) has not been confiscated or destroyed by the competent authorities of the country in which the article may be for the time being;
- (c) has not been seized by virtue of any law of the country of destination.

(2) No postal article shall be recalled nor shall the address thereon be altered under this rule except under and in accordance with the orders of the Central Government, the Director General, Postmaster General or such other authority as may be authorised by the Central Government in this behalf.

(3) An application for the recall or alteration of address of a postal article under this rule may be made by the sender or by any person authorised by him in writing in this behalf to any of the authorities referred to in sub-rule (2) either directly or through any officer in charge of a post office:

Provided that no application shall be entertained under this sub-rule in respect of a postal article addressed to a foreign country unless such article is addressed to a country notified in this behalf by the Director-General in the Post Office Guide.

(4) An application made under sub-rule (3) shall be accompanied by a fee calculated at the rate of rupee one for each postal article to which it relates:

Provided that where the application is in respect of several postal articles, posted at the same time, at the same office, by the same sender, to the same addressee, the articles so posted shall be treated as a single article for calculating the fee:

Provided also that the fees paid under this sub-rule shall, in no circumstances, be refunded.

(5) Where the application is in respect of an insured or registered article, it shall also be accompanied by a copy of the original receipt granted by the post office and fresh postage necessary.

(6) An application made under sub-rule (3) may contain a request that any communication that may have to be addressed to offices in India or foreign countries for recalling the postal article or altering the address thereon may be transmitted by air mail or by telegraph and in such a case, the sender shall be liable to pay the amount of air mail or telegraph charges payable on such communications.

(7) The Central Government shall not incur any liability by reason of misdelivery of any postal article contrary to an application made under this rule.

(8) Nothing in this rule shall preclude a sender of a postal article from making a request for a simple correction of the address (not involving alteration of the name or status of the addressee) direct to the office of destination of the article.
